Download: An Indian intelligence agent journeys to a war-torn coastal island to break a rebel group. A long-time task is believed to be too much for one person. The fight is so dangerous and uncontrolled that all the military operations are on pause. This involves the tracker, who has been assigned to him, being lost. When the remote island is attacked by the rebel group, the rebel group basically dares to shoot the army's artillery. A lot of casualties are recorded. The hunting is now on, and the army believes that the tracker has been found. What they will do when they find him will be discovered only in this movie! After six years, John Abraham returns to this interesting world with a completely different story that is completely different from all his previous stories. Shoojit Sircar, who is an Indian actor, has written this story with a little bit of an Indian backdrop. The film revolves around the character of an intelligence agent who has a lot of work to do and is given a mission. During this period, we also witness a relationship that has been established over years. Directed by Shoojit Sircar, the film features Nargis Fakhri as the female lead and John Abraham as the male lead. Madras Cafe is an upcoming Indian political action thriller film directed by Shoojit Sircar and produced by John Abraham and Ronnie Lahiri.
