"This is a great Organizer. No more lugging files or documents back and forth to your office." "I'm very much a home user but decided to purchase this product for my own use because I have stored close to 10,000 files in my personal library. Out of the total, I have used a few hundred photos, spreadsheets, presentations, and documents throughout all years of my life and may continue to increase in number as time progresses. This product makes the storage of such large files manageable, flexible, and user friendly. It serves me well in both home and work environments. Out of the file browsing section, I have found the Image Options particularly useful. I use this feature to quickly search for a particular photograph or document. The use of structured folders is extremely useful. While I have not found it to
